

A photograph of a window with a white frame. A roller blind with a vibrant, multi-colored pattern of concentric circles is partially rolled down. The pattern includes shades of red, green, blue, yellow, and black on a light background. On the white windowsill, a book with a black cover and white text is lying flat. The text on the book is 'Maden til øllet'. To the left of the book, there are some small, dark, rectangular objects. The window looks out onto a green, leafy outdoor scene.
